

How do states record family law proceedings?

State	Court that hears family law matters	Allowed Methods of Recording Proceedings
Alabama	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Alaska	Superior Court	Audio recording
Arizona	Superior Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Arkansas	Circuit Court	Stenography
California	Superior Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Colorado	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Connecticut	Superior Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Delaware	Unified Court	Family Court is not a court of record. Superior Court is stenography or audio recording.
District of Columbia	Superior Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Florida	Unified Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Georgia	Superior Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Hawaii	Unified Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Idaho	Magistrate Courts	Stenography or Audio Recording

Illinois	Unified Trial Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Indiana	Superior Court	Audio Recording
Iowa	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Kansas	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Kentucky	Circuit Court	Video Recording
Louisiana	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Maine	District Court	Audio Recording
Maryland	Circuit Court	Audio Recording
Massachusetts	Family & Probate Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Michigan	Circuit Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Minnesota	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Mississippi	Chancery Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Missouri	Circuit Court	Stenography
Montana	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Nebraska	County Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Nevada	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
New Hampshire	Superior Court	Audio Recording
New Jersey	Superior Court/ family division	Stenography or Audio Recording
New Mexico	District Court	Stenography or Audio Recording

New York	Family Court per county	Stenography
North Carolina	District Court	Stenography
North Dakota	District Court	Stenography
Ohio	Common Pleas Court / Domestic Relations division	Stenography or Audio Recording
Oklahoma	District Court
Oregon	Circuit Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Pennsylvania	Court of Common Pleas	Stenography or Audio Recording
Rhode Island	Family Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
South Carolina	Family Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
South Dakota	Circuit Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Tennessee	Circuit Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Texas	Circuit Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
Utah	District Court	Audio Recording
Vermont	Family Court in each County	Stenography or Audio Recording
Virginia	Circuit Court
Washington	Superior Court	Stenography or Audio Recording
West Virginia	Family Court	Video Recording
Wisconsin	Circuit Court	Stenography or Audio Recording